Daryl Hutchinson : North Carolina and the War Between the States Poster (Civil War State Map Posters)

before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised North Carolina and the War Between the States Poster (Civil War State Map Posters):

This poster includes photos of 16 historic landmarks and museums, marks 20 major battles on a map of the state and displays miniature portraits of brigadier generals, major generals, lieutenant generals, and governors.

About the Author Daryl Hutchinson received a Technical Illustration Award from Macworld magazine and has worked as a senior designer for Ford Motor Company, a creative director for the Tampa (FL) Tribune, and an illustrator and designer at Super Duper Publications, a publisher of children's educational products. His artistic endeavors range from creating interactive CDs to traditional pen and ink illustrations. A member of his local Sons of Confederate Veterans camp, he explains that his goal as an author is "to create a wider understanding of the South and to perpetuate the memory of our Confederate ancestors" through his artwork. Hutchinson lives in Travelers Rest, South Carolina.
