Arenal purchased this set of paper dolls to use as part of a set of wall-hangings I am making. I've spent a great deal of time studying the amazing paper dolls published by Dover. By now, I have already purchased more than I could possibly use. However, I am so taken by these designs that I am just happy to have the growing collection kept in pristine condition. Just looking at them is worth every penny! Paper Dolls in the Style of Mucha is an awe inspiring collection.

No one expressed the otherworldly appeal of the Art Nouveau style better than Alphonse Mucha. The Czech artist's prodigious output focused on beautiful women in flowing robes adorned with flowers, stars, and other organic motifs. This collection features two paper dolls and 28 gowns rendered in Mucha's voluptuous style, including costumes from Sarah Bernhardt productions of Salomé and Hamlet.
