before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Pocket Book of British Ceramic Marks: Including Index to Registered Designs 1842-83:

Includes approximately 2350 main entries and 3250 subsidiary entries in the important Index to Registered Designs

1842-83, bringing the coverage up to 1990. For quick reference, it has been recast in strict alphabetical order.

About the Author J. P. Cushion, FRSA, was a much sought-after authority on decorative and collectable pottery and porcelain. He spent many years on the staff of the Victoria and Albert Museum, mostly in the Department of Ceramics where he was the Senior Research Assistant. For twenty years he tutored courses on the history of pottery and porcelain at Morley College for the University of London Extra-Mural Department. He was the president of the Morley College Ceramic Circle and a founder lecturer for the National Association of Decorative and Fine Art Societies.
