Randy Briggs, Fred Edwards : Redlands (Postcard History: California) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Redlands (Postcard History: California):

Cultural traditions coalesce in the city of Redlands like nowhere else in the Inland Empire. The University of Redlands is distinguished by a century of academic leadership to the community, the Fortnightly Club is one of the oldest literary organizations in the United States, and Spinnet plays favorites as one of the oldest musical societies in California. The rich cultural legacy of this sun-drenched San Bernardino County municipality intertwines with its past as a farming, citrus-growing, and health-care community, and lives on in the Redlands Symphony Orchestra, Redlands Art Association, and other regionally recognized organizations. The renowned A. K. Smiley Library remains an enduring tribute to one of the city's pioneering twin brothers (A. H. was the other) who oversaw its formative years.

About the Author In this new retrospective, authors Randy Briggs and Fred Edwards, both longtime residents well acquainted with Redlands history, and enthusiasts concerning its past, present, and future, use vintage picture postcards in this keepsake compendium to create a nostalgic journey back into the community's storied history.
