Ziner Another Stunning book by the wonderful Penny Morrill! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. completely satisfied with this seller. By Mark S. Maciag This seller met all my expectation with this purchase. This book is a very thorough look at the history of the silver jewelry industry in the Taxco, Mexico region of the mid 20th century. Many photos - I found this book to be very interesting to read as well as being very informative. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent By Patti H Puckett Excellent reference book with great historical information.

Here is a magnificent presentation of the Mexican artisans and their creations displayed in 484 beautiful color photographs. The chapters present the master designers and silversmiths whose reputations have grown to international fame with an intimate look at one of the principal designers, H'ctor Aguilar, and the personnel at this workshop. Valentin Vidaurreta, Los Castillo, William Spratling, Antonio Pineda, Hubert Harmon, Enrique Ledesma, and many more craftsmen are represented by their exquisite designs.

About the AuthorDr. Penny Morrill has developed a history of modern Mexican silver through her research, writings, and teaching at George Mason University. She has established the Spratling-Taxco Collection at Tulane University's Latin American Library to further the study of Mexico's silver tradition and innovation. She lives in McLean, Virginia.
