From Dover Publications : Six Patriotic Posters Cards (Dover Postcards) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Six Patriotic Posters Cards (Dover Postcards):

NOW -- ALL TOGETHER" (Raising the Flag on Iwo Jima) by C. C. Beall, after the February 23, 1945 photograph by Joe Rosenthal; (2) World War I poster "I WANT YOU FOR THE U.S. ARMY" (shown on the cover) by James Montgomery Flagg, July 6, 1916; (3) World War I poster "IF YOU WANT TO FIGHT! JOIN THE MARINES" (showing a half-length portrait of a woman in a military uniform, and trench warfare scene with troops carrying the U.S. flag and the flag of the Marines) by Howard Chandler Christy, 1915;(4) World War I poster "GEE! I WISH I WERE A MAN. I'D JOIN THE NAVY" (showing a young woman -- a "Christy Girl," an idealized version of American femininity of the time -- wearing a Navy uniform) by Howard Chandler Christy, circa 1915;(5) World War II poster "GIVE IT YOUR BEST!" (showing a 48-star U.S. flag) from the Office of War Information, 1945; and(6) World War I poster "U.S.A. BONDS - Third Liberty Loan Campaign - BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA," (inspired by the slogan "Every Scout to Feed a Soldier" and showing a Boy Scout on one knee in front of Lady Liberty) by Joseph Christian Leyendecker, 1917. These are tear-out postcards in a small book. I like the fact that they are an appropriate size to send with U.S. postcard postage; larger postcards require U.S. letter postage. For best results, tear carefully and then trim the perforations off with an X-Acto or similar cutting tool. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Standard vintage war postcards By margaritamaudiib Standard issue vintage war postcards. Cardstock is of okay quality - not flimsy, but not super sturdy either. It was an okay purchase, no complaints. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great quality excellent price. By Kimberly Jones I chose these cards because I participate in an exchange program across the globe and thought that patriotic cards would be appropriate. These cards are excellent quality and are thicker than your typical postcards.

Full-color mini-sized reproductions of famous American posters from World Wars I and II: "Join the Marines" and "Gee!! I Wish I Were a Man, I'd Join the Navy," by Howard Chandler Christy; "I Want You for U.S. Army," James Montgomery Flagg, and 3 others.
